

Hello everyone, my name is Hajara Nassimba Hull, am the editor of the community magazine Refresh Magazine B&D. I would like to share my journey with you how I came about the idea of the community magazine. After years of volunteering in my kids school, I gained the skills that are enabling to do what am doing now. Volunteering helped connect with my community and added value to myself in that, I was able to recognise my potential for publication and gained experience, got better connected and now am able to give much more back to my community and myself. When we give a little time to others, we are able to change their lives and improve our own too. I continue to volunteer so I can make a difference to my community whilst improving my life too I am looking to meet volunteer members and to share your stories with the rest of the community..
